

integrity /'intɜːrɪti/ noun
 1 the quality of being honest and having strong integrity.
 2 the state of being whole and undivided: unimpaired integrity.
 • the condition of being unified, unimpaired, or consistent: the integrity of the constitution.
 • internal consistency or lack of corruption: the integrity of the system.
 ORIGIN late Middle English (sense 2): from intēger + -ity. Compare with entirety, integrity.

integument /'intɜːɡjʊmənt/ noun
 1 the outer protective layer, esp. the skin, of an animal.